WRITTEN BY: IBT GIRLS

We have said it before and will say it again; we love to travel. So, when we stumble upon an exciting destination or a property that begs to be visited, our wanderlust goes into high gear. We love to stay in unique places and hotels with lots of character but sometimes struggle to find the right fit in the right location. Experts in all of the above, The Venue Report, gathered a few favorite stays to help us out. From small chains to one of a kind hotels, inns, and bed & breakfasts, these are the best boutique hotels around the world. Trust us, you will be bookmarking (or booking!) all of their recommendations!
